Claude B. Hudspeth's Views Upon The Right Of Woman To The Ballot

HUDSPETH, DALE & HARPER ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW EL PASS TERMS Dec. 27th, 1916.

Mr. J. L. Dietrich,

1001 E. Mevada St.

El Paso, Texas.

Dear Sir:-

I have received your letter and will state that I am unalterably opposed to woman suffrage. I ap preciate the fairness and candor of your questions but your candor calls for equal frankness upon my part. I am, therefore, consprained to say that while I yield to every other man the same free expression of opinion and the right to hold views upon every public question that I assume myself, there is no way that I can bring myself to the conclusion that woman suffrage is the best for governmental affairs, both state and nation.

Yours very truly,

CBH-D

DHOTOGRAPHIC reproduction of a letter read by Each Lamar Cobb before an El Paso audience, giving the views of Claude B. Hudspeth, candidate for congress, upon the right of woman to the ballot.
Mr. Cobb is a pronounced advocate of woman's suffrage and has been endorsed by the Federated Women's clubs of El Paso for congress.

The above letter was in reply to one from Miss A. Louise Dietrich, a resident of El Paus since before Mr. Hadspeth came here to make his home. The senatorial calutation to his fellow townswoman, who is prominent in all the Red Cross, civic and club work of the city, is "Dear Sir,"

Foot Comfort for Fighters

Just as the men who is going "over the top" must have comfortable feet, so the men and women who are holding the home lines must have foot comfort to be wholly efficient.

Practically every man serving Uncle Sam is at times troubled with some form of foot discomfort. Heavy shoes, wool socks, long marches, changes of climate, have all contributed to produce tired, aching, tender, sore, perspiring feet.

For these conditions Dr. Scholl's "3" Necessities afford relief and comfort. They enable the soldier to endure bard marches, stand for long periods and do excessive foot work with a minimum of pain and discomfort.

For the civilian—these *'3'* Necessities are of equal importance. The feet, continuously used should have the same careful attention as the face, hands or hair.

Let's Show America What Our Own El Paso Can Do!

Over there in France our boys are going over Help 15 ring the parapet, giving their lives to the cause.

NONE of them are saying, "I went over last month; that's enough," or "I'll wait and see whether I'll fight today." They are giving life itself and ungrudgingly, so that you and I and all of us can live in freedom.

All you are asked to do is to loan your money, to buy Liberty Bonds, for which you're paid interest; do il now, today.

Money itself has no intrinsic value. Its only Duy a Dond! value consists of what it can give us-of what it can do to make life more liveable. Just now we can make our money count for most if we let the Government use it for us. There isn't one of us but can lend part of his savings or his earnings to the "Invest this for me-fight the war to the finish. Do my part in making the World Safe for Democracy. That's all I ask."
